

BSSK Events 2012

Restricted Items

We have specialist stands in some product categories, such as crystals, jewellery or books for example, and because of this, restrictions apply to these items on other, non-specialist stands.

This has always been the case, but recently we have noted items creeping in that are not supposed to be on stands. We recognise the recession is probably responsible for traders wishing to maximise chances of sales, but must respect the ethos we originally started with and preserve the trade of those stands who specialise and are therefore very knowledgeable on their subject.

The following is a list of such products and the restrictions placed upon them. If you have previously been offering, or wish to offer any of these products, please speak to me before entering them on your booking form, as they may be declined.

Item	Restriction
Books	Authors promoting their own work, or associations with their own publications are not subject to this restriction. A stand with a couple of titles in their own field – such as a Reiki book on a Reiki stand, or a Witchcraft book on a Pagan/Wiccan stand are acceptable. In all other cases, books are not allowed except on the dedicated book stand.
C.D's	Stands promoting their own work are not subject to restriction. A stand with a CD on their subject, such as Reiki music on a Reiki stand etc are not subject to the restriction. In all other cases, CD's are not allowed, except on the dedicated music CD stand.
Crystals and Tumble Stones	In all circumstances - only allowed on stands booked as Specialist Crystal Stands. Not allowed on any other stand, including therapy stands, mixed stands, pagan stands etc, unless previously discussed and agreed anew for this year.
Jewellery	Only allowed on stands booked as Jewellery Stands – i.e. stands taking one of the designated jewellery slots. Not allowed on any other stand, including therapy stands, mixed stands etc. There may be occasional exceptions to this – pagan jewellery on a pagan stand for example, but this is by prior agreement and should not be assumed to be acceptable without prior agreement for this year.
Branded Products	Bio-flow, Eco-flow, Herbalife, Natures Sunshine, Forever Living Products etc – we accept one of any branded product only at any show. These items may not be incorporated on other stands.